"I have so many wonderful blessings from the Lord to be thankful for that I do not have room to complain about what I do not have", is a statement my Dad made to Dr. Marvin Clark years ago when they were both pastoring in San Angelo, Texas. Dr. Clark recently told me about this during a phone call. That statement is certainly true of Verna and me despite all the circumstances we are presently experiencing. She has been having much pain and great difficulty getting in and out of bed due to more breaks in her vertebra. Your prayers are so greatly appreciated and we are so thankful for each of you!

I recently received an e-mail from Romania in response to a contact made over our web site bbfibobgriggs.com. Melany asked us to pray for Romul's salvation. "He lives in a family where many of his relatives are orthodox priests. In Romania, the Orthodox religion doesn't believe in salvation through faith but especially through actions. They have many traditions like worshipping the icons, going to the priest to confess sins, etc. He attended a Christian church but stopped going because he is convinced that his family wouldn't accept for him to change the orthodox beliefs. He is convinced that when he will die, he will be gravely and everything ends there", she wrote. I am sending her a packet with materials about salvation and gospel tracts. Please pray with us for Romul.

You can listen to several of our Thanksgiving messages on our website under Media Library. Just click on the message and it will begin to play after about 30 seconds. We recently received a phone call from Jill, our son's wife telling me that she was listening to some of our broadcasts when the children came in and said, "That sounds like Grandpa". I never imagined being able to speak over the internet but the Lord has made it possible! Also, if you are able to get on our website, click on Our Ministries then on that page click on Distance Learning. At the lower left hand corner you will find two icons you can click on that will each open up a free resource to many types of study helps with your Bible study.

Also, Brother JB and Daniel recently mailed out mail bags to India and have more to mail out now that some additional funds have come in. Thank you for faithfully co-laboring with us in the gospel.
