Fifty seven years ago May 11th, a tornado hit our home and Lakeview High School in San Angelo, Texas at about 2:11 PM. Today our house also is in a state of confusion due to our downsizing so our son David and family can move in the summer of 2011. Thank you for your faithful support although you did not hear from us last month due to our making these changes. I will try to keep you better informed from now on, the Lord willing.

Much has occurred since our last letter so I will attempt to cover it all briefly. Verna was no longer able to lift her leg to step into the bath tub so we were advised to remove the tub and install a shower. Estimates were from over $6,000.00 to $1,300.00. The final cost was $1,325.00 for which we Praise The Lord! The shower perfectly fills the space where the tub stood. Verna was delighted to get a shower after only bed baths since February. Also, during the installation we burned out our water pump and had to replace it for $450.00.

Please remember me in prayer on May 17th as I will be having cataract eye surgery on my right eye at noon that day. My left eye is so much better since the surgery on it last May.

Since our broadcast is now available over our Internet web site (bbfibobgriggs.com) a Missionary in Uganda will be using some of our broadcasts over a local radio station that he operates there. Praise The Lord! What a privilege to have a part in reaching the lost through the means of radio. You make all this possible through your faithful assistance!

Since I last wrote you we have sent out another mailing overseas and Bible correspondence courses to India, Ethiopia and Nigeria. The total cost was $1,418.28. Included in the mailings were 1,387 Bible course lessons. Since the first of the year we have mailed out 5,584 Bible course lessons. We have 593 active students presently.

When a student completes the first four courses, with each containing a number of lessons, we promise them a new Bible. I have been informed that we will soon be having to send out over 200 new Bibles. More fruit to your account! Any special assistance toward these expenses will be greatly appreciated.
